NICARAGUA NIGHT

PROJECT GETTYSBURG-LEÓN

It is with great pleasure that Project Gettysburg-León (PGL) welcomes you to the Nicaragua Night 2016. For over 20 years, PGL has sponsored this chili dinner and auction as its major fundraising event. Nicaragua Night 2015 raised over $40,000 for PGL programs!

We would like to extend our sincere gratitude to the following people and organizations whose support has made Nicaragua Night 2016 possible:

Our Corporate Sponsor: Sun Coffee Roasters

PGL thanks Sun Coffee Roasters for its generous, corporate support of Nicaragua Night 2016. CEO Keith Lemnios informed PGL that Sun Coffee is providing a substantial monetary contribution, plus profits from the sale of its coffee in the Gettysburg College Bookstore, as well as all of the income from 50 bags of coffee on sale at tonight's event.

Through its collegiate program, Sun Coffee Roasters retails its organic, fair-trade blends to Gettysburg College's Dining Services. The company, headquartered in Plainville, Connecticut, in addition to distributing its coffee throughout the country, is committed to bringing premium, sustainable fair trade coffee to colleges and universities, particularly in the east. Sun Coffee Roasters works with campuses to support educational and service programs, such as Fair Trade or Rainforest Days, and, at Gettysburg, the annual PGL Auction.

Lemnios describes Sun Coffee Roasters as "a socially conscious, earth friendly, and highly innovative U.S. coffee roaster . . ." He adds, "Not only is Sun's process good for the planet, it's good for your palette. Our methods yield the freshest, best-tasting sustainable fair trade coffee possible."

PGL is happy that Nicaragua is the source of some of Sun Coffee Roasters coffee beans, and is extremely grateful for the company's support of Nicaragua Night and our ongoing partnership initiatives.

Auction Committee: Their many hours of soliciting donations, cataloging, making arrangements, publicizing and coordinating the Auction are truly appreciated:

Joyce Ettenger, co-chair ~ Gretchen Natter, co-chair ~ Jeff Rioux ~ Karl Mattson ~ Marge Mattson ~ Pat Crowner ~ Dave Crowner ~ Lynn Cairns ~ Dottie Cairns ~ Marcia Gregorio ~ Dan Mangan ~ Gina Robertson ~ Tammy Hoff ~ Janet Hikes ~ Elizabeth Belair ~ Darren Spirk ~ Megan Weikel ~ Harriet Marritz ~ Katy Mattson ~ Matt Crowner ~ Jan Powers ~ Bill Lewis ~ Claire Moyer

PGL Members & Friends: The many who hit the streets, talked to their friends and family, and advocated for the beautiful items we compete for tonight!

Los Platanos de la Noche: Larry Gregorio & Michael Reyka for providing dinner music

Larry Peters & Son and family our favorite Auctioneers!

Paul Kellett serving as Volunteer Spotter

Auctioneer's Assistants Dave Crowner and Baird Tipson

Auction Volunteers & Staff: Gettysburg College Facilities, Instructional Technology, Athletics, College Life Technical and Dining Services Staff, the Center for Public Service team, Gettysburg College student volunteers, and other dedicated folks who hold Nicaragua in their hearts.

Our Donors

To all of our donors who gave so generously of their time, talents, and goods, we thank you! This event would of course be nothing without the many treasured items being auctioned off tonight. With your help, we hope to raise $50,000 tonight!

As you are aware, PGL is a tax-exempt organization, so donations tonight are eligible to claim as a tax deduction. Those who donated will receive an email with a tax receipt in the weeks following the auction (another effort to reduce our carbon footprint). If you donated, but would rather have a tax receipt mailed to you, please see Joyce Ettenger or Jeff Rioux with your request.

The Impact of Partnership

PGL is honored to multiply its impact through committed partnerships with organizations such as the Adams County Arts Council, the Gettysburg Area School District, the Adams County Art Teachers, Gettysburg College, the Adams County Young Grower Alliance, Casa de la Cultura, and in León, Taller Artístico Xuchialt, the community of Talolinga, and Las Tías. Through these partnerships, we all build a global community!

Casa de la Cultura

Casa de la Cultura began in 2011 as a local initiative of Project Gettysburg León. Sharing the mission of fostering friendship, education and cultural exchange, Casa de la Cultura promotes the rights of immigrants in Adams County and creates a space for the community to explore the arts and healthy living while emphasizing Latino culture and its realities. Initiatives include support for youth applicants of Deferred Action, English as a Second Language instruction in Gettysburg and Biglerville, swimming clinics, and immigration reform activism, as well as partnerships with Painted Turtle Farm and Healthy Options for healthy living and family education activities.

We welcome participants, volunteers, and observers to develop and support initiatives. Together we can improve our lives and human rights locally and in Nicaragua.

Tribute to a Good Friend: Jorge Perez-Rico

Jorge Perez-Rico, for 20 years an active participant in Project Gettysburg-León and a tireless advocate for the Latino and migrant community in Adams County, died suddenly in July of this year and the people of PGL, together with his wife Victoria, and his children, Elena, Vicki, Elias and José, continue to mourn his death. Jorge's favorite phrase was "echala ganas" which means "work with a will," and if any man did work with a will it was Jorge. It is challenging to list all the programs that Jorge organized and energized during his 25 years in Gettysburg. He was a founder of Casa de la Cultura, facilitated the successful applications of more than 200 Deferred Action Childhood Arrival young people, arranged swimming clinics and computer labs for migrant children, organized varied ESL opportunities, began the first Spanish newspaper and Spanish radio programming in Adams County, led the "green politics" of the Painted Turtle Farm, headed a 27 team soccer league for farmworkers, arranged for Latino residents to interpret their own reality through photography, all in addition to his work as a family educator at Lincoln Intermediate Unit #12. Jorge believed, as Martin Luther King repeatedly said, that the arc of the moral universe is long but it bends toward justice. In his daily life and work, Jorge depended upon that promise, and for his faithfulness to that vision he received the Martin Luther King Celebration "Living the Dream" award in 2012.

Larry Gregorio and The Cool Hand Ukes

A small part of your entertainment this evening will be provided by "The Cool Hand Ukes" a local group of amateurs who have interpreted "Nicaragua, Nicaraguita" and "Guantanamera", national love poems of Nicaragua and Cuba respectively. If you are interested in joining us for our monthly soup and uke night, please contact Joyce Ettenger, jettenger@hotmail.com.

NICARAGUA, NICARAGUITA

Ay Nicaragua, Nicaraguita
La flor mas linda de mi querer
Abonada con la bendita, Nicaraguita,
Sangre de Diriangen.
Ay Nicaragua sos mas dulcita
Que la mielita de Tamagas
Pero ahora que ya sos libre, Nicaraguita,
Yo te quiero mucho mas
Pero ahora que ya sos libre, Nicaraguita,
Yo te quiero mucho mas

Oh Nicaragua, Nicaraguita
The most beautiful flower dearest to my heart
The hero and martyr diriangen
Died for you
Nicaraguita
Oh Nicaragua you are even sweeter
Than the honey from tamagas
But now that you are free
Nicaraguita
I love you much more
But now that you are free
Nicaraguita
I love you much more

GUANTANAMERA

Guantanamera, guajira guantanamera
Guantanamera, guajira, guantanamera

Yo soy un hombre sincero, de donde crece la palma
Yo soy un hombre sincero, de donde crece la palma
Y antes de morir yo quiero cantar mis versos del
alma

Guantanamera, guajira, guantanamera
Guantanamera, guajira, guantanamera

I'm a sincere man , I'm from where growing palm
(leaf)
I'm a sincere man , I'm from where growing palm
leaf
and before I die I want to sing my verses of my soul

Chorus

59. Collectible Nicaraguan Pottery from San Juan De Oriente

Auction Committee

Beautiful, large pottery piece with pre-Columbian designs with Jaguar features. San Juan De Oriente is still primarily inhabited by the indigenous descendants of the original Nahuatl (pronounced nah-whal) Indian tribes. Legends tell of a female spirit who lived in the Masaya volcano and was consulted for prophecies and resolving conflicts among the tribes. Depending on the circumstances, she was offered food that was delivered on elaborate clay platters that were made in San Juan. At the time of the Spanish presence on the continent, in fact, the village became so well known for its clay pieces that the Spaniards called it San Juan de los Platos (the dishes). Centuries-old tax records show the village even paying their tribute to the Spanish King with pottery. It was not until Nicaragua declared its independence from Spain in 1821 that the name was officially changed to San Juan de Oriente. Some of the pottery of San Juan is still made using the coil method, but most is done on a kick-wheel. The pieces are dried and decorated, then low-fired in beehive-style adobe kilns using wood fires for fuel. Many of the pots are in the style of design they call "inciso," or incised, a traditional technique dating back more than 2500 years, and many are still decorated with traditional pre-Columbian designs. It is only recently that some of the potters have begun to supplement the traditional pre-Columbian motifs for more modern forms of expression. It is an exhaustive process, but one that yields some of the world's most magnificent and collectible pottery.

Joyce Ettenger John Dufendach

Located on the slope above Laurel Lake, Osaga Lodge was Gettysburg College's cabin, owned and maintained by them for the use of students and faculty. It was named Osaga and stood for "Old Spirit of Gettysburg Academy," a predecessor of Gettysburg College. Except for bracing the roof with posts and a ridge pole, little has been done to alter the chestnut log cabin structure with its great room and 6 bed sleeping loft. In accordance with such rusticity, there is no running water (drinking water is obtained from the spring by Laurel Lake) and a two seat outhouse is attached. Electricity is present and a large hearth and smaller wood stove supplies the necessary heat you can't supply yourselves.

The lake has fishing, swimming, and boating. Pole Steeple is a 10 minute hike. A great place for young families (ie no WIFI or TV).

PROJECT GETTYSBURG-LEÓN

PGL is a non-profit and grassroots organization formed to promote cross-cultural understanding and to develop programs that support our friends who struggle to overcome poverty and inequity and establish a more just world.

PGL immerses students and area community members in developing communities in Nicaragua to raise awareness of the realities and complexities of unjust economic structures and development policies. PGL also develops and supports programs in Nicaragua and the United States, which promote efforts to establish justice and human dignity through education and personal exchange.
